Dear colleagues!

The Kyiv Chamber of Commerce and Industry expresses its respect to you and thanks you for your words of support at this difficult time for our country.

For 17 days now, Ukraine has been heroically resisting the russian invaders, despite its superiority in manpower and military machinery. The very moment you are reading this letter, hundreds of thousands of Ukrainians are not only defending their country, they are fighting for common values for all of us - freedom of choice, human dignity and the right to life.

We are sure that you can watch in real time the events taking place in Ukraine and have an understanding of the difficulties in the work of the Kyiv CCI. Regardless of the conditions, we make every effort to support our employees and provide all possible assistance to the city's residents.

Unfortunately, our resources are not unlimited, so we turn to you with a appeal to provide all possible financial assistance that will allow us to continue the humanitarian support of the population of Kyiv.

Only together can we win this war. Payment details:
